

The Contractor Board (Basic or Enhanced) is installed in a protected enclosure that is attached to the rear of an interior front panel.

For making or changing connections, access the Contractor Board through its own front panel door.

